

Sabbath – April 6, 2013

9:00am – Prayer Encounters

“We must be much in prayer if we would make progress in the divine life. When the message of truth was first proclaimed, how much we prayed. How often was the voice of intercession heard in the chamber, in the barn, in the orchard, or the grove. Frequently we spent hours in earnest prayer, two or three together claiming the promise; Our perils are greater now than then. Souls are more hardened. We need now to be imbued with the spirit of Christ, and we should not rest until we receive it.”

Stewardship Corner

As David was bringing the ark back into Jerusalem, he was careful to stop every six paces to offer sacrifices to the Lord. As the triumphal procession approached the capital those marching sang out with these words, "lift up your heads, oh you Gates; and be lifted up you everlasting doors; that the King of glory shall come in."

The band of singers and players answered: "who is this King of glory?" From another company came the response: "the Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle." Then hundreds of voices, uniting, swelled the triumphal chorus: "lift up your heads, oh ye Gates; lift them up, you ancient doors, that the King of glory may come in." Again the joyful inauguration was heard, "who is this King of glory?" And the voice of the great multitude like the sound of many waters was heard in the rapturous reply: "the Lord of hosts he is the King of glory." Psalm 24:7-10

Today that same question rings out, 'who is this King of glory?' How will you answer that question today? Is He worthy of your sacrifices? Do you desire to live in the awareness of His presence? Let's take this time as part of our worship to give to our King of glory.

Family Matters

- ⇒ Dear church members and friends, welcome to Windsor Seventh-day Adventist Church! The central theme of the Christian's life should be the Cross of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Not only did He die on that cross to save us from our sin, but He rose early on the first day of the week to show us that God keeps His promises. As Christ rose, we too have the opportunity to rise when He comes again. Hallelujah! We pray that today's worship through music will be a blessing to you and your family.
- ⇒ For ALL 1st and 2nd TIME GUESTS – please remember to pick up your special gift in the foyer RIGHT AFTER WORSHIP SERVICE.
